

Intergenerational Worship: The Work of ALL People

Rev. Breen Marie Sipes

God creates each of us to be unique, and uniquely gifted, and desires to build a relationship with us. One way to tend this relationship is through our worship.

liturgy: Greek: laos (people), ergos (work), worship is the work of ALL people

Intergenerational Worship

- welcomes a variety of learning styles and abilities
- invites diverse leadership and meaningful connections
- honors and shares the faith experiences of multiple generations

Framework: several on-ramps leading to the same highway. As you listen, what will be your ONE next step?

Offering Grace-Filled Hospitality

How can we clarify the language we use in worship, lower barriers to participation, and include multiple learning styles?

--Clarity of Language

--Barriers to Participation

--Learning Styles

Expanding Leadership

How can we include more voices/participation AND more connections?

--Worship Leader Pairs

--Worship Leaders and Helpers

--Teams, Coordinator, Widen the Circle

Reimagining the Worship Experience

How does the worship of the people itself change?

Sarah Bentley Allred: something for everyone, not everything for everyone

We ALL have something to teach and learn and share.

Creative Prayer Practices

❖ Engage the Senses

❖ Prayer Toolbox

Diversity of Musical Expression

❖ Traditional/Contemporary Hymns

❖ Camp Songs/Songs on the Radio

❖ Music that Makes Community: Paperless Songs

Scripture Presentation

❖ Psalm refrain

❖ Experience the Word

❖ Intergenerational Conversations

ONE Next Step

Where is the Spirit leading you into new expressions of hospitality, leadership, and worship? What is your ONE next step in this journey?

God bless your going out and your coming in, from this time forth and forevermore. Amen. (Psalm 121:8)

More Resources